3. Mr. Ellertson, in the office of the Vice President, called and asked how he might get in touch with Mr.  an Agency employee. Ellertson said that had been in After checking with I advised Ellertson that was presently assigned to Headquarters but was currently on leave in Ocean City. It developed that Ellertson and were graduate school friends and Ellertson merely wished to make personal contact with him. He thanked us for our assistance.
5. Met with Robert Hanover, in the office of Representative Daniel J. Flood (D., Pa.), in follow up of our interim reply to their inquiry on behalf of a former Agency employee who believes he is entitled at disability annuity based on Agency service. I advised Mr. Hanover of our unsuccessful efforts so far in contacting and of our interest in reviewing the facts and assisting in the presentation of any appropriate claim. Hanover said they had no personal knowledge of the case but would check with Representative Rooney's office, from whom they had received it as a courtesy referral.  If iid not contact us in a period of time, Hanover would like a close-out letter which in turn could be forwarded to
